

Alison Briggs

Health and Wellbeing
Principal Officer

Duneane
THE FORT OF THE TWO BIRDS

Co –Production describes the relationship between service providers, in this case the council and service user, the community, that draws on the knowledge, ability and resources of both to develop solutions.

Our Process

Community Health Champion
OCN Level 2 training course (2 cohorts)

Vision statement, logo,
asset map, local history
booklet, time-bank,

Community Spirit Day – 19th
March 2016

Duneane Community Champions are a proactive, enthusiastic collective committed to promoting health and well-being and creating a strong and connected community

Our Building Blocks of Co-Production

Reframing how we work

Develop a common Agenda

Recognise Assets

Make connections to mobilise assets

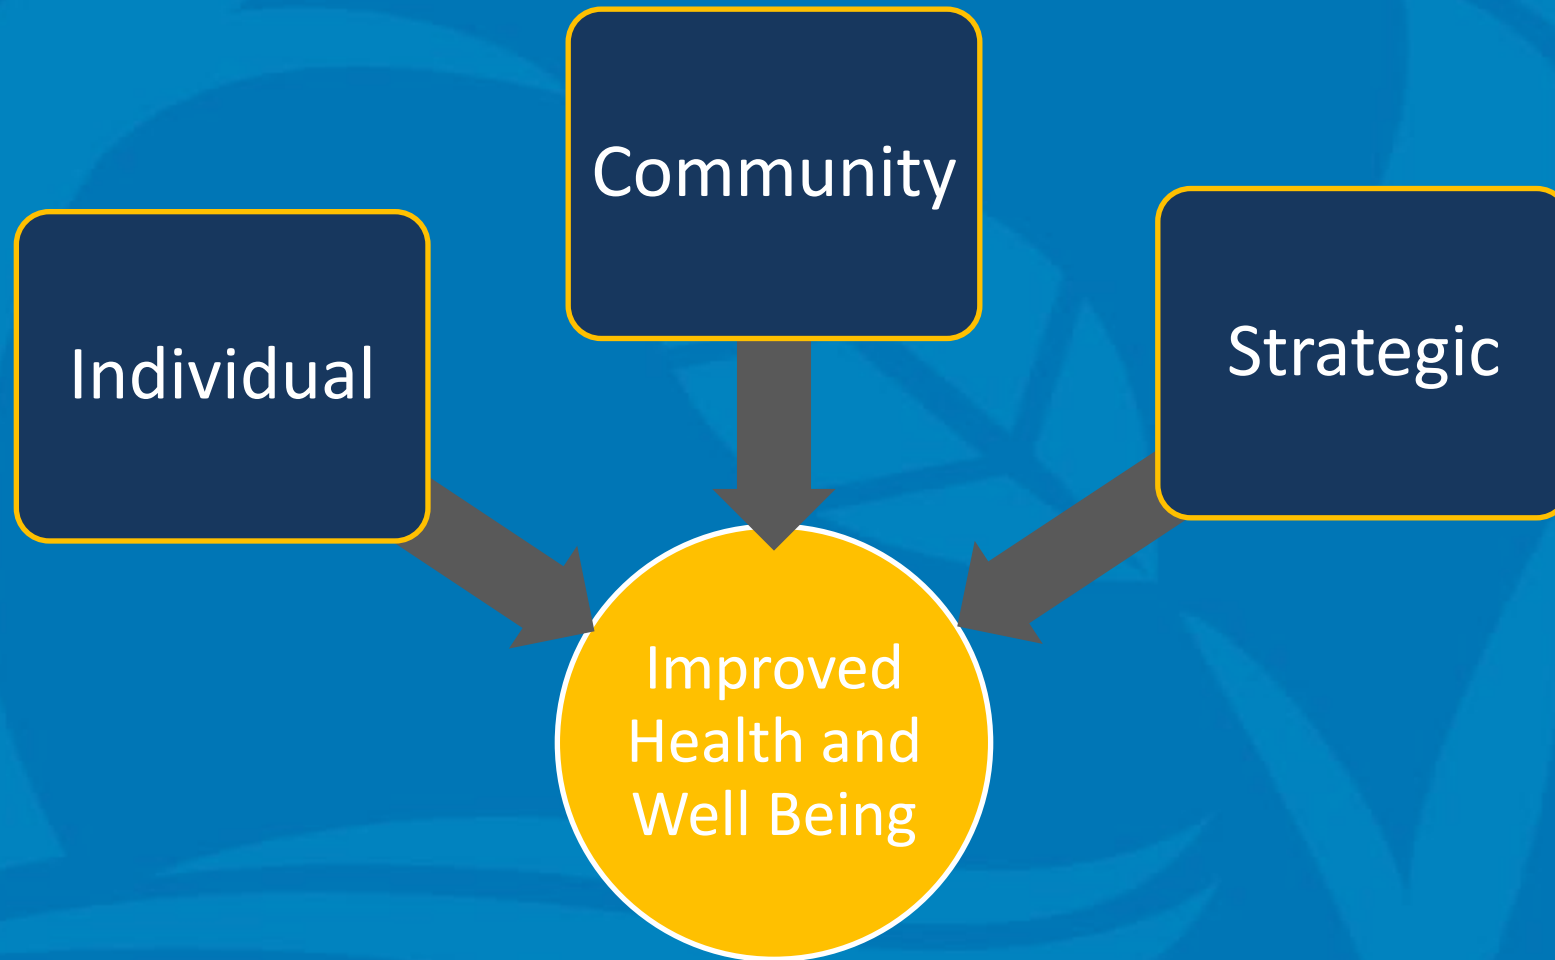

Allow time

Jenny Hanna –
Community Development and Health
Network (CDHN)

Community Development
& Health Network

Layers of Evaluation and Evidence

What is next?

- Working with CENI to develop a Framework to showcase the evidence.
- Developing a guide to how co-production approach has worked for Antrim and Newtownabbey Borough Council.
- Further linkages to the Community Planning Process.

For further information contact :

Alison Briggs

Antrim and Newtownabbey Borough Council

alison.briggs@antrimandnewtownabbey.gov.uk

028 90340160

Or Jenny Hanna
CDHN

jennyhanna@cdhn.org

Community Development
& Health Network

