

taking
speed can really bring
you down

The more speed you take, the more exhausted you are when it wears off and the more likely you are to keep taking more. And that's called addiction. For further information about drugs contact the National

Drugs Helpline:

0300 123 6600

Public Health
Agency